If you need the morning off that's cool. We have five on in the morning so if you don't come in we will run with four

Thank you so much, Donna. It's a bigger help than you realize. I'll explain everything tomorrow afternoon to you. :(

My life is back to "normal". I don't even know why I was letting it make me a walking anxiety attack and a train wreck. I had absolutely nothing to hide and they seen that. :) case closed and all is well. Thank you for being so accommodating though, you're the best boss ever.

I know, I am freakin' amazing!! Lol! Glad everything is resolved and there is peace.

I mean that! You really are, and I mean that in the least- ass kissing way possible. I'm sincere. :) haha
